

Privacy Policy

KP Components Limited and hereafter shown as KPC or KPC Work, is committed to protecting your privacy, and at the same time we endeavour to use any data we collect from you to provide the best possible service. This privacy policy describes how we collect and use your personal data.

This KPC website is a UK based website and takes reasonable care to comply with requirements of the UK GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) with regard to the personal information you supply on this site. This site makes every effort to protect your information from unauthorised use.

However, as no data transmissions over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us and you do so at your own risk.

KPC may occasionally modify this Privacy Policy, such variations becoming effective immediately upon posting to the website and by continuing to use the website, you will be deemed to accept any such variations.

Please note that KPC does provide links to other sites, which may not be governed by this Privacy Policy and you should view the particular privacy policies of those sites for further information.

Data Collection

This site collects personal data from you via web forms, and also via email addresses we provide so that you contact us with enquiries and send us your details.

You submit information using these methods voluntarily, and agree to the use of the personal data you provide as described in this policy.

If you give us personal information about somebody else, such as a colleague, we will assume you have their permission to do so, and their data will also be subject to this policy.

KPC does not share, sell, trade or rent any personal information that we may receive to any other party. We will advise clients immediately of any data breach. Any sub processors we use, are regular suppliers to us and have updated their privacy policies to be in line with GDPR guidelines. We have a dedicated Data Protection Officer (DPO) and you can write to them at: sales@kpcwork.com

Data Collection via Cookies

KPC may also collect personally identifying information using cookies. Sometimes cookies are required as part of this site's operation. We will not collect personal data about you using cookies outside of this purpose.

If you prefer not to allow the use of cookies, you can change the configuration of your browser to either warn you when you receive a cookie, or to automatically reject them. You may find, however, that disabling cookies means certain areas of the site do not function correctly.

Data Usage

KPC may also collect personally identifying information using cookies. Sometimes cookies are required as part of this site's operation. We will not collect personal data about you using cookies outside of this purpose.
